

Writing in response to over-riding local state no-call lists. We have been on the Indiana list for one year now, we are no longer having our supper hour interrupted by telemarketers. We had been moving the phone close to the table to check the caller id as phone calls were so prolific between 6 and 7 pm. Please do not over-ride the Indiana no call list. We are very satisfied with this service provided by our state Attorney General.